Is it acceptable to swindle the state when the state swindles you?

This is the doubt that grips Claudia, a young art restorer who manages to make ends meet thanks to her grandma's pension, because the Superintendence is late paying her.

When her grandma suddenly passes away, bankruptcy seems to be looming, so Claudia, with the complicity of her staff, "freezes" her grandma so she can continue to collect her pension until the state pays her what she is due. Just when the solution to Claudia's problems seems finally close, Simone Recchia, the most incorruptible – and clumsiest – officer in the Tax Police, falls hopelessly in love with her. Amidst ingenious deceptions, disguises and misunderstandings, the young art restorer's scam will begin to melt like a frozen

In a small mountain village lives Peppino, an optimist who loves fishing, hanging around with friends and his job at the small local library. One day, due to a political error, something amazing happens: Peppino is mistakenly elected President of the Italian Republic. Pulled out from his quiet life, he has to play a role for which he is obviously inappropriate, but his common sense and his instinctive gestures are incredibly effective, except for what concerns the protocol. The inflexible and fascinating Deputy Secretary, Janis Clementi, tries anxiously to prevent the unpredictable actions of the President. Peppino's joyful madness, his humanity and his disarming honesty hit the institutions by surprise - especially in this time of crisis - winning over the disheartened country. However, conspiracies, diplomatic incidents and seedy political machinations loom on the horizon.

Michele lives in a quiet seaside town. Nobody would say he was popular at school nor is he a brilliant student nor is he very good at sports. But deep down, he does not care. Michele would settle for catching the attention of Stella, the girl he cannot help looking at all the time in class. But he has the feeling that she is totally unaware of his presence. But one day the monotony of normal life is shattered by an extraordinary discovery: Michele looks in the mirror and finds that he is invisible. The most incredible adventure of his life is about to begin.

Julio and Daniel raised as brothers by Julio's Mother. They are the best footballers of a poor and conflictive neighborhood. While Daniel is an innocent boy, Julio is more involved in the underworld. During a match, they impress a scout from a professional Football Club, who encourages them to participate in their team try-outs. Daniel is highly motivated; Julio instead becomes a member of a violent drug gang.

One night their mother is accidentally killed by a member of Julio's gang who is also the goalie of their team. Daniel decides not to tell it to his brother as he fears Julio's revenge. He knows the try-outs is the only way for them to escape from their no-way-out slum.
